Secretary to Government, Development Departments,
Bangalore.

SIR

Adverting to G.O.No.E.4118-20/Edn.35-22-13 of the 2nd January. 1923, withholding the guaranteed appointments to the first two successful candidates of the Civil Engineering Section of the Government Engineering School, in view of the heavy retrenchments then effected, I have the honour to inform you that there is greater scope now for appointments in the Suboverseer's Cadre owing to the undertaking of High Level Canal Works and other works of magnitude. Besides there will be retirements in that cadre in the usual course as before the Reorganization of the Department in 1922.

2. I therefore recommend that the first successful student in the Civil Engineering Section from the year 1928 may be given the guaranteed appointment of Suboverseer on Rs.35/- in the Public Works matter.

[illegible] may kindly be taken in the
